Target Students	Welcome to the wonderful world where law and business meet each other. Everyone is invited as long as he or she wants to know the influence of government and laws on the global corporations and their activities around the world. No prior knowledge of law or business is necessary. This class provide an overview of various legal issues surrounding corporations. Students must prepare for each class in advance including spending some time in reading the textbook and other required reading materials.

Course Description & Goals	Students will be exposed to various aspects of legal issues in business management. Actual cases and related film footages may be used to stimulate class discussions. Due to the market failure that the world economy is experiencing now, governments around the world are tightening their grips on corporations through numerous regulatory schemes. Students will discuss and learn about those regulatory issues which restrict or promote today`s corporate activities. Because this class covers a wide range of legal issues, students` participation will be strongly encouraged and properly graded. Many cases will be analyzed and discussed during class in light of today`s viewpoint.

Prerequisite	A flexible mindset as well as basic communication skill in English.
--------------	---

Course Requirements	A common sense will be challenged. Be ready to think a lot and talk a lot during class. Students should read the textbook and be prepared to discuss cases during classes.
---------------------	--

Grading Policy(Absolute)	Final Exam : between 50 points and 100 points Class Participation : between -3 points and + 3 points ( including a case presentation)
