수업목표 및 개요	This course provides an introduction to the basic principles of public international law as it applies in our modern world. It will focus on how the governance of our global system is being shaped through international law and policy. We will analyze the interface of international law and governance through the prism of such issues as internal unrest, dispute resolution, climate change, globalization, development, terrorism, use of force, pirates, cyberlaw, torture, human rights, genocide, the United Nations, the World Bank and non-governmental organizations. Students are encouraged to follow global events during the course to enhance their understanding. What are the limitations of international law? How can it improve our world? How does it work and how should it work? Issues will be explored through interactive analysis of actual cases of international law.
선수과목(선수학습)	None
강좌운영방식	Active class participation is strongly encouraged. Furthermore, for each class, several pre-designated individuals will be required to provide an outline of the relative subject matter and lead class discussion.
성적평가방법(절대)	Grading will be based on a midterm examination (10%), a final examination (50%), class participation (30%), presentations (5%) and attendance (5%). Latenesses will be regarded as absences.
