

Accessibility statement

Microeconomics I - ECO00013C

« Back to module search

- Department: Economics and Related Studies
- Module co-ordinator: Dr. Dominic Spengler
- Credit value: 30 credits
- Credit level: C
- Academic year of delivery: 2020-21
 - See module specification for other years: 2018-19 2019-20

Module will run

Occurrence	Teaching cycle
A	Autumn Term 2020-21 to Summer Term 2020-21

Module aims

To get acquainted with the most important concepts, methods, tools and techniques of micro economic analysis. The module focuses on principles and methods and less on detail and mathematics.

Module learning outcomes

On completing the module a student will:

- Be able to understand the basic concepts and tools of economic analysis
- Have the proper bases for following more advanced economic modules

Assessment

Task	Length	% of module mark
24 hour open exam Microeconomics 1 (EXAM II)	N/A	50
24 hour open exam Microeconomics 1 (Exam I)	N/A	50

Special assessment rules

None

Reassessment

Task	Length	% of module mark
------	--------	------------------

24 hour open exam Microeconomics 1 (EXAM II)	N/A	50
24 hour open exam Microeconomics 1 (Exam I)	N/A	50

Module feedback

Information currently unavailable

Indicative reading

The text for this module is a bespoke published text:

Hey, J.D. Microeconomics: People are Different. Pearson Custom Publishing. (ISBN 9781780160139) This text is available in Blackwell University Bookshop on campus.

The information on this page is indicative of the module that is currently on offer. The University is constantly exploring ways to enhance and improve its degree programmes and therefore reserves the right to make variations to the content and method of delivery of modules, and to discontinue modules, if such action is reasonably considered to be necessary by the University. Where appropriate, the University will notify and consult with affected students in advance about any changes that are required in line with the University's policy on the Approval of Modifications to Existing Taught Programmes of Study.

Coronavirus (COVID-19): changes to courses

The 2020/21 academic year will start in September. We aim to deliver as much face-to-face teaching as we can, supported by high quality online alternatives where we must.

Find details of the measures we're planning to protect our community.

Course changes for new students