【CJSP/TAISI Course】

This Course of lectures will focus on human rights in a global society. and also attempt to build up definitions and opinions of human rights and peace with the help of knowledge of the past and current situation as the background of the problems concerned. Considering these situations in international society, they could have a close connection with religious, racial, financial and political factors, etc.. between these. In this respect, in global consciousness, it is necessary for us to consider human rights problems not only with taking an international viewpoint but also with overiewing the internal affairs of the nations concerned.

Objectives Students are expected to reflect on the realities of human rights in a global society.
