Intended Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of the module, students should be able to:

- Identify, analyse and apply in practical tasks the grammatical structures covered in the course, including complex and idiomatic forms, at a B1 level or above, according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).
- Extract information from a range of written and spoken sources, including journalistic sources and the broadcast media, at a B1 level or above.
- Respond accurately in writing to stimulus material on topics of general and current interest using complex structures and idiom and both formal and informal registers, at a B1 level or above.
- Communicate fluently and accurately in the spoken language, taking part in debates and simulations, as well as give short presentations on a range of topics of general interest using both formal and informal registers, at a B1 level or above.
- Work independently to consolidate language skills, at a B1 level or above.

Teaching and Learning Methods

Two synchronous seminars per week dedicated to the development of the four key language skills - reading, writing, listening, speaking

There is a separate E1 occurrence, indicated above, that has a different assessment pattern without a final exam.
