

Enquire Teaching Timetable

Return

Course Outcome

ECON 3610 - International Trade

Learning Outcome

To understand basic issues related to the classical trade theory, strategic trade theory and commercial policy, such as tariffs, quotas, export subsidies, etc.

To understand recent developments in globalization, trade liberalization, labor mobility and international investment.

Course Syllabus

Trade & Hong Kong economy
Ricardian model
Heckscher-Ohlin model
Standard trade model
Krugman model
Trade policy
Political trade policy
Trade and developing economies
Controversies in trade policy
International factor movements

Assessment Type

Feedback for Evaluation

Course and teaching evaluation

Required Readings

P. R. Krugman and M. Obstfeld, International Economics: Theory & Policy, 8th ed., 2009, Pearson Addison Wesley.

Recommended Readings

Joseph Yam, "Factor Price Equalization and Factor Mobility, I, II" HKMA, View Point, November 15, 22, 2001, (www.info.gov.hk/hkma)
Joseph Yam, "Economic Integration between Hong Kong and the Mainland," HKMA, View Point, March 28, 2002, (www.info.gov.hk/hkma)