Core Competencies
-------------------	--	--	--

Target Students	International and exchange students
-----------------	-------------------------------------

Course Description & Goals	The goal of this course is to familiarize students with Korean culture, literature, film, music, and society. Classes will consist of lecture, readings, and films and will be structured around small group and class discussions. Through this course, we will examine larger issues such as the legacy of colonialism, gender and social status, the Korean War and its aftermath, economic development and modernization, nationalism, etc. Through this examination we hope to consider broader and more inclusive approaches to understanding Korean culture and society.

Prerequisite	None
--------------	------

Course Requirements	Students are expected to attend lectures regularly online and to keep up with reading assignments. Students will be required to keep up with readings, prepare their responses to topics for discussion before class, and actively participate in discussion. There will be a mid-term and a final examination. Students are also expected to lead at least two discussion groups. Reading materials will be uploaded to LearnUs.
---------------------	--

Grading Policy(Absolute)	Final grades will be determined as follows: attendance 10%; participation/discussion 30%; midterm 30%; final 30%.
